

ZOMBIE INJURY ATTORNEY

Written by

INT. BAR - NIGHT

The dark bar room has chairs and tables stacked up against the front entrance. A small group of survivors with makeshift weapons - bats, 2x4s, metal pipes - huddle behind the bar. MAN is the only one with a firearm: a shotgun with only a handful of shells.

The group tenses up as they hear a clanging from the backroom. They recoil as ZOMBIE shambles out from the dark. Man fires at zombie, taking its arm off.

INT. OFFICE - DAY

Zombie stands in the middle of a handsome office, with bookshelves full of lawbooks behind it. The Zombie speaks a language of grunts and snarls at the camera, SUBTITLED:

ZOMBIE

When I was the victim of a terrible workplace accident that cost me my arm, Robinson and associates got me the compensation I deserved.

Robinson walks into frame and puts his hand on Zombie's shoulder.

ROBINSON

We at Robinson and associates believe in holding EVERY employer accountable, even if their employees are trying to eat their flesh. If YOU'VE been injured because of what YOU need to consume in order to sustain your life - or undeath - call 1-800-CASH-4ME.
