INT. CLASSROOM - DAY

Its the middle of a 300 level philosophy class. Around 20 students are in the classroom, paying varying levels of attention. The PROFESSOR is standing at the front of the classroom, head down, reading directly from his lecture notes.

CHAD is staring blankly off into the distance, at nothing in particular.

PROFESSOR
(droning)
...which led Descartes to come to the conclusion "Cogito, ergo sum",
"I think, therefore I am."

The PROFESSOR looks up from his notes.

PROFESSOR (CONT'D)
CHAD!

CHAD snaps out of his stare

PROFESSOR (CONT'D)
What's your opinion on Descartes line of reasoning?

CHAD stares blankly back and shrugs.

CHAD suddenly blinks out of existence, accompanied by a loud POP.

PROFESSOR screams.

The rest of the students scream.
