DRINKING PROBLEM

Liz Zhang

INT. APARTMENT - DAY

SEAN and MATT are sitting on the couch chatting. Sean reaches over to pick up the remote and accidentally knocks it off the table instead.

MATTT

Yeah and... are you drunk?

SEAN

What?.

Matt points to the remote.

SEAN (CONT'D)

Just because accidentally knocked over the remote?

MATT

Clumsiness is a classic sign.

SEAN

Come on man, not everything I do is a sign that I've been drinking.

MATT

And your frequent "bathroom trips".

SEAN

I have a small bladder! You know this.

MATT

I know your sneaking drinks in there.

CHRISTY enters apartment

CHRISTY

Hey honey! Hey Matt! I'm glad you could join us for movie night.

Christy and Matt hug. Sean and Christy kiss. Christy slowly pulls away.

CHRISTY (CONT'D)

Are you drunk?

SEAN

What?

CHRISTY

You are!

SEAN

What would even make you think that?

CHRISTY

Your breath, its all minty.

SEAN

Yeah, because I've been chewing gum.

CHRISTY

To cover up the smell of alcohol.

SEAN

Because I knew you were coming over! Do you even smell any alcohol on my breath?

CHRISTY

Of course not, not when its so well covered up by mint. And what are these?

Christy holds up a bag of potato chips?

SEAN

Chips?

CHRISTY

A potato based product that you can make mash out of, ferment and then distill to make vodka.

SEAN

You think I'm running a distillery in my apartment?

MATT

Its quite obvious you melted down your copper pots and pans and used that to create your own still.

SEAN

I know that you two have been watching a lot of intervention shows but I don't have a problem.

SEAN (CONT'D)

Your reaching so far for these accusations and its disrespectful to me as an adult and damaging to our relationships.

CHRISTY

Your right Sean.

MATT

We're sorry.

SEAN

Its ok. Now lets enjoy movie night.

CHRISTY

Let me just put away my coat first.

Christy takes off her coat and goes to open the closet door.

SEAN

Wait!

The closet door opens revealing a copper still.
